RESELLERS PURCHASE CO., Inc.

July 1, 1847.

Dr. WRIGHT: Some time since, your agent left me a supply of your Vegetable Pills, and have found said Pills to be a sovereign remedy in Fever and Auge, &c. Mr. James Boyd has a son who has been laid up with a fever, and had tried various other remedies, all of which proved ineffectual. After failing to buy your Indian Vegetable Pills, and by using one box, he has been entirely relieved. Mrs. Spencer had a daughter, Mrs. High Groves, son, and Mr. Wm. Groves, all of his family, were all down at the same time with fever and ague, and were not relieved until the remedy was effect. Your Indian Vegetable Pills have relieved them all to perfect health. I can assure you, that you have seen, your Vegetable Pills are the only pure and perfect cure for Fever and Auge.

MORE BANKS GOING! STAND UP UNDER!—Some excitement prevailed in Cincinnati on the 30th ult., in consequence of the banks there refusing the bills of the Sandusky and Norwalk Banks. We have not learned what were the precise reasons for the refusal, but we see it stated that there had been a severe run on these banks. On the 2d inst. the credit of the Norwalk Bank appeared to be reestablished, but Sandusky was quoted at 50 per cent discount. The Clinton Bank of Columbus, also, appears to be looked on with suspicion. The Cincinnati Dispatch asserts that it has nearly two millions dollars of notes in circulation, and not $200,000 in specie to redeem them. If this be the case, it cannot be long before it will fulfill its destiny and collapse, and then who will be those who hold its notes?

STATE FREE SOIL CONVENTION.

The Van Buren abolition party, of Buffaloes, as they are now generally termed, held a state convention at Indianapolis on the 30th August. The State Journal says the convention was not very numerously attended, and the majority of those present were abolitionists.

Mr. Daniel Worth called the convention to order, and moved that Hon. H. L. Ellsworth of Tipppecanoe act as President, which was carried by acclamation. D. Worth, of Randolph, O. Butler of Marion, and J. W. Wright of Cass were chosen Vice Presidents.

Mr. Wright of Cass was chosen Vice President, and General Taylor having "THANKFULLY ACCEPTED" the nomination, a great excitement was therupon caused among the whigs in Albany. The Buffalo Republic says:—The excitement of the whigs, on its reception, was intense. The streets were alive with angry politicians. Mr. Fillmore himself did not conceal his indignation. He

H. Hunt, Weid, and others, met at the Journal office, and in half an hour the following handbill was in circulation, issued from the member of Congress from the City of Atlanta, Georgia, &c., district, has bolted the nomination of Taylor, and come out strong for Van Buren; but notwithstanding this, he has actually been renominated for Congress, by a whig convention, beating the regular Taylor candidate for nomination all hollow. This shows what Taylor's prospects on the Reserve are, and the Reserve, it should be remembered, is, rather has been, the great stronghold of whigism in Ohio; but the whigs there do not seem to consider whigging and Taylorism as the same thing; and we should judge from present appearances that Van Buren will get more votes of the Reserve than General Taylor, and that Gen. Cass will get the vote of the State by an overwhelming majority.

Taylorism in North Carolina.—The Standard printed at the Capitol of North Carolina has given the following article on the recent elections in the State:

"TAYLORISM DEAD!—Whatever the result of the late elections may turn out to be in this State, one thing is certain, a death blow has been given to the prospects of General Taylor for the Presidency. General Taylor, we were told, was to increase the whig majority in this 'confirmed' Whig State, the bare use of his name was to carry defeat, dismay, and consternation into the Democratic ranks. 'Alas! gentlemen, that was a great mistake!' Cass, Butler, Ried, principles, and Democracy have made the point, and the enthusiasm has been shown to be—as we said it was more than a month ago—on our side. Look at those powerful—those empire counties Guilford and Orange, with their whig losses, and their gains to the democracy of more than 500 votes! What does that mean? 'And if Southern Whigs will not stand up to General Taylor and Millard Fillmore overboard. The meeting at the Capitol was very large and enthusiastic.'

After speeches from other delegates, votes of thanks to the officers, &c. &c. the convention adjourned sine die.

Contingent Senatorial Electors.—E. Deming, of Tipppecanoe Co.; S. S. Harding, of Ripley Co.

Contingent District Electors.—2d district: John Brazzelton; 3d district: John P. Miller; 6th district: E. J. Summer; 7th district: Atharion Crane; 9th district: John U. Pettit; 10th district: John Worth.

After speeches from other delegates, votes of thanks to the officers, &c. &c. the convention adjourned sine die.

We do not see any thing in the proceedings of this convention, calling for much comment.

The candidates of the new party are now fairly before the people. All those who think that the one idea for which that party contends, is of such paramount importance as to justify an abandonment of all the old issues for which the different parties in this country have hitherto contended,—and who are moreover satisfied that Mr. Van Buren is sincere and honest in the course he is now following, so utterly in variance with his whole past life,—will of course give him their support. But in our opinion no democrat can conscientiously do so. Mr. Van Buren was once a democrat, and as such received the support of the democratic party. But he is now at the head of a new party, composed of the odds and ends of all the factions which have been split from the old parties, and are moreover associated on the same ticket with C. F. Adens, a rank federalist. So long as "Principles not men" is to be considered as one of the leading principles in our organization, no democrat, however much he may have once admired Mr. Van Buren, can ever think of voting for that ticket, and thus aiding to defeat our regularly nominated candidates, and destroying our party. We have no fears that any true democrat will do any thing so egregiously absurd, nor do we apprehend that many who have hitherto acted with us, will be found in the new party. Cass and Butler, we predict, will have the united and almost unanimous support of the Indiana democracy, and will receive a larger majority than was ever before given in the state.

How it may be with the whigs we cannot say. But we are inclined to believe that a large portion of them, who cannot consistently support a military chieftain, and who are too much opposed to the extension of slavery even to vote for a slaveholder—the candidate of the south, and the avowed champion of southern interests—will fall into the ranks of the new party. It would certainly be less inconsistent for them to vote even for Mr. Van Buren than for Gen. Taylor; and we should not be surprised to find many of them doing so. We have indeed accounts that such will be the case. In Wayne and some other strong whig counties, we are informed that Van Buren, or free soilism, or Buffaloes, is making fearful inroads into the whig ranks.

On the whole we are inclined to believe that this new coalition will materially weaken the whig party in this state, without sensibly affecting the democrats, and our majority will thereby be proportionally increased. We count Indiana as good for 10,000 majority for Cass and Butler in November next.

* Dr. Beacher, we understand, declines acting as elector, and expresses his determination to vote for Cass & Butler.

YELLOW FEVER.—The Yellow Fever has been introduced on Staten Island by some vessels from New Orleans. Fifty cases have occurred, of which seven terminated fatally. The New York Board of Health has prohibited all intercourse between the city and the part of the island where the fever rages.

THE NEW PARTY.—Of whom does it consist?—We notice that almost all of the whig papers are coming out strong against the Buffalo party. This may seem strange to those who recollect that but a few weeks ago these same papers were warm in their praises of Van Buren, and zealously gave every aid and comfort to his friends. They then thought he was going to divide and distract the whig party; but they have now ascertained it is from the whig party that most of the recruits come. This course materially alters the case, and satisfactorily accounts for their change of tone. They begin to see the danger of their falling into the pit they were preparing for the democrats.

We are pleased to learn from the Times that the Rough and Ready club is in a flourishing condition, and is doing good service for Taylor and Fillmore. They do this good service so quietly and with so little appearance of doing anything, that we had thought of applying to Gen. Taylor to send on a few of his hounds, not to worry the club, but mere-ly to find out where it is.

The Times asks who it was that attempted to pry into the private affairs of the committee room a few evenings since, by holding an ear to the key-hole? We do not know exactly who it could have been, but we would wager a glass of hard cider that it must have been the editor of the Times himself. We cannot think of any other person in this town enough to hold an ear to the key-hole for any such purpose, while the door was wide open—as the door in question has been for some weeks past. Do you acknowledge the error?

A despatch in the eastern papers, says that the meeting on Monday, was a fizz out under the influence of a speech from T. Butler King, of Georgia, he having convinced the whigs present that they were all wrong in electing Taylor for his acceptance of a democratic nomination. The despatch smashes the matter over by saying that the first meeting proceeded, as it turned out, from erroneous views, or erroneous information! This is strange, as they had the letter of General Taylor before them. The truth is, that the war was between the hope of spoils and an adherence to principle. In such a fight in the whig ranks spoils always carries the day. Mr. Fillmore must feel easy under this abandonment, and he may well exclaim, "see me from such friends."

THE WESTERN RESERVE.—Renomination of Giddings—Downfall of Taylorism.—Hon. J. R. Giddings, the well known whig abolition member of Congress from the City of Atlanta, Georgia, &c., district, has bolted the nomination of Taylor, and come out strong for Van Buren; but notwithstanding this, he has actually been renominated for Congress, by a whig convention, beating the regular Taylor candidate for nomination all hollow. This shows what Taylor's prospects on the Reserve are, and the Reserve, it should be remembered, is, rather has been, the great stronghold of whigism in Ohio; but the whigs there do not seem to consider whigging and Taylorism as the same thing; and we should judge from present appearances that Van Buren will get more votes of the Reserve than General Taylor, and that Gen. Cass will get the vote of the State by an overwhelming majority.

THE ALBANY MOVEMENT.

The letter from Albany detailing the proceedings of a meeting of the whig leaders, HEADED BY WEED, FILLMORE, & OTHER STATE OF OFFICERS & PROMINENT AND DISTINGUISHED WHIG PARTIZANS, is from a reliable source, and will arrest the attention of the reader. It is one of the most important movements of the day, and is the prelude to a complete abandonment of Taylor by the Whigs of the North. The immediate cause of this uprising of the leading whigs of Albany, was the following letter from Gen. Taylor, ACCEPTING A NOMINATION FROM THE SOUTH CAROLINA NULLIFIERS, who nominated Butler, the Baltimore nomine, for the Vice President:

From the Buffalo Republican.

ALMOST A JOKE—WITHOUT COLORING.—The Albany Convention, which convened at Indianapolis on last Wednesday, came near being a farce. In forming the Electoral ticket, probably by maneuvering on the part of some of the ardent admirers of amalgamation, (political, at least, if not social,) a colored gentleman was elected as Elector for the 1st District. Our late political friend, Judge Wright, "smelt the rat" and exposed the attempt to give color to the ticket by "pulling wool" over the eyes of the convention.—The name of the gentleman was scratched off, and he was thus prevented from adding character to the movement. That is coming very near going Abolitionism practically as well as theoretically.

We can see no consistency in erasing the gentleman's name, even if he did partake a little more of the "sable hue" than others of his party. There were colored delegates or speakers in the Buffalo Convention, and it certainly would not be wrong for the Indianapolis convention to follow in the footsteps of its illustrious predecessor at Buffalo, or even be carried a little further by party zeal.

That "Politics makes strange bedfellows" is abundantly proven by the present coalition between VAN BUREN, BIRNEY and ABBY KELLY!—Logansport Pharos.

Another Boisterous Nomination—The "Packs" and "Wirms" of Whiggery.—Joseph M. Root, another bolting Taylor whig, has been nominated for re-election to Congress by the whigs in the Huron district. He will not vote for Gen. Taylor any way it can be fixed.

Every whig member of Congress from Ohio, one who kicked strong against Taylor when he was chosen as the expediency candidate for President, has been endorsed for a re-election. The exception is in the case of our old friend Fisher. He kicked strong against Taylor, but was finally whipped into the traces, and for which he was set aside in favor of the master spirit of the Philadelphia mob.

Whiggery has now three candidates for Congress in the field, the sworn opponents of their candidate for President, and their candidate for Governor is so alarmed that he dare not proclaim his intention even to give old Zack a vote.

So far the "Wirms" of whiggery, as the bolters are called, after the christening of Gen. Taylor's "human cattle," beat the "Packs" all hollow, the big Anas and the little Anas—big Mansfields of Taylor's plantation, as well as the big "Mansfield" of the Cincinnati Atlas, to the contrary notwithstanding.—Ohio Statesman.

How they Squirm.—The par excellence Proviso men the Van Buren bolters are annoyed to find Judge McLean's free territory views correspond so well with Gen. Cass' position. Some pronounced his letter taken from the National Intelligencer published in Tuesday's paper a "forgery;" others read it over, compared it with Cass' Nicholson letter, then called the learned Judge an "ass."

It is a fact that Judge McLean has never publicly or privately expressed a sentiment in variance with Gen. Cass' constitutional opinion on this subject.—Portage Dealer.

Still, though Judge McLean has ever been the firm and fixed opponent of slavery, and though he would have taken the undivided support of the whigs of the northern States had he been nominated by the Philadelphia "Chinese Museum," and of the entire body of the nation, he has been put forth as the candidate of the Buffalo Menagerie yet, if upon this subject he does now to express an opinion conformable to that of the democratic candidate, we may expect to see him hooted down as a "northern man with southern principles," as having sold himself to the slave power, &c. Such is their admirable consistency.—Portage Sentinel.

Fortune Telling and Crime.—The trial in the case of Andrew Tyler, convicted and sentenced to die, at the bar of the Supreme Court held in Williams county, as accessory to the murder of John L. Farnsworth, the editor of the Williams Standard, was recently over. The trial was between the defense and the prosecution, and the jury, after a long and laborious trial, found the defendant guilty of the crime of murder in the first degree, and recommended a sentence of death.

The people of the Wabash will find it difficult to hold an ear to the key-hole for any such purpose, while the door was wide open—as the door in question has been for some weeks past. Do you acknowledge the error?

A despatch in the eastern papers, says that the meeting on Monday, was a fizz out under the influence of a speech from T. Butler King, of Georgia, he having convinced the whigs present that they were all wrong in electing Taylor for his acceptance of a democratic nomination. The despatch smashes the matter over by saying that the first meeting proceeded, as it turned out, from erroneous views, or erroneous information!

This is strange, as they had the letter of General Taylor before them. The truth is, that the war was between the hope of spoils and an adherence to principle. In such a fight in the whig ranks spoils always carries the day. Mr. Fillmore must feel easy under this abandonment, and he may well exclaim, "see me from
